

BASE Line

November/December 2003

Steven M. Baldrige, P.E., S.E.

As we conclude another exciting year for Baldrige and Associates Structural Engineering, Inc. there are numerous accomplishments to reflect upon. The following are some of 2003's highlights:

Todd P. Dwight, S.E.

- We gained National Recognition for Structural Engineering and Anti-Terrorism / Force Protection design. Our accolades and contributions include;

Frank K. Humay, Ph.D., S.E.

Structural Engineering Magazine: "Best Structural Engineering Firms"

Chad H. Nakamoto, S.E.

Concrete International, November 2003: "Preventing Progressive Collapse in Concrete Buildings"

Rebecca A. Yee, P.E.

Evan A. Mizue

- In addition to strong technical "know how" a responsive engineering practice requires equal attention to business practices. Our Business Leadership continues to be recognized in Hawaii.

Kevin M. Smith

Tracy M. Duke

Pacific Business News: "Best in Business"

Fe O. Rodillas

Pacific Business News: "Fastest 50"

Marcial J. Sialana

Woo Sung Chang

- Continued involvement in Hawaii's Premier Projects. Of the top five Commercial Construction Projects for 2003, our office provided structural engineering services on two of the projects and value engineering services on the other three. These projects include;

John D. Chesak, P.E.

Pacific Command Headquarters: The new $80,000,000 Commander in Chief Pacific Forces Headquarters.

WalMart Superblock Development: Over 1,000,000 square foot of new retail space and parking.

- We continued our strong commitment to Community Involvement including the following:

Hawaii State Civil Defense: FEMA Urban Search & Rescue Training as Structural Specialists for collapsed building rescue.

ACE Mentor Program: Working with Roosevelt High School students interested in Architecture, Construction and Engineering.

Baldrige & Associates Structural Engineering, Inc. looks forward to 2004 and wishes our clients a prosperous and safe New Year.

